About the Steelmasters Group

Founded in 1973, Steelmasters Group is a leading Australasian supplier and manufacturer of industrial and speciality fasteners through its network of 12 branches (four in New Zealand and eight in Australia) with its head office in Auckland, New Zealand. Coventry Group will operate Steelmasters Group as a separate division of TD to minimise integration risk and the division will continue to be run by Steelmasters Group’s existing management team.

The acquisition is scheduled to be completed on 30 April 2024.

Growth has been driven by the Company's strong value proposition, activity in key market sectors, acquisitions and diversification into new markets, margin improvements and sensible cost control.

New NAB revolving cash advance facility
